FINAL DECISION

On May 11, 2011, the chief deputy commissioner of the Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation (OFIR) issued a notice of hearing containing allegations that Respondents had failed to comply with various provisions of the Michigan Insurance Code. Subsequently, Respondents provided OFIR staff with evidence in support of their position that they did not violate the Insurance Code. OFIR staff has now determined that the best available evidence does not support the allegations against the Respondents. In a September 12, 2011 motion, OFIR staff requested that this compliance case be dismissed.

Therefore, it is ordered that this matter is dismissed.
